

50 Years Creating Opportunities
 This year's Scramble celebrated our Scottish Heritage – and Summer Street's 50th anniversary!

CIBC Wood Gundy Raised $50,950
 Pictured from left: Glenn Hynes, Howie Anderson, Marc Comeau, Brock Proudfoot (Bruce Walker not pictured).

With the same knack for fun and fundraising as Richard Simmon's 2017 team, Jimmy Buffett's "It's 5 o'clock Somewhere" raised their glasses – and $50,330!

CF Construction raised $21,000
 From left: Craig Fraser, Mitchell Fraser, Wade Sullivan, Grant Fraser and Jacob Pentz.

Toast to Haggis
 Ray Wagg, Bob White, Bob Bennett and Barry Hamilton raise a toast to the haggis and another great Scramble.

Anthony Conway, captain of the A J Gallagher Insurance team congratulates Special Olympian Chris Akinson on making a putt for the team.

$255,000 Raised!
 All-time total OVER $3,000,000

Thank you to everyone involved in our 24th Annual Golf Scramble. Your support and generosity continue to make this one of the most successful charity golf tournaments in the country.

Summer Street 2018 GOLF SCRAMBLE

THANK YOU!

Summer Street exists to create opportunities and a better life for people with intellectual disability.

At Summer Street we provide education, training and support to 200 clients annually. We offer a spectrum of services that are customized as much as possible to accommodate individual preferences. With demand for services constantly increasing, we face exceptional challenges as we move into the future. Your support of the Summer Street Golf Scramble is crucial to our ongoing success.
